HEC BRIEFING

18 July 1956

MKAR EAST DEVELOPMENTS

25X6 25X1 On 11 July, Egypt announced that Col. Mustafa Hafez, chief of the "Palestine Liberation Army," had been killed in the Gaza Strip by a "mine explosion". 25X1 The name of Matez 25X1 25X1 had become a household word in Israel as chief of the "fedayeen" terrorists. His death was immediately proclaimed in the Israeli press. B. On 15 July, Egypt's Middle East News Agency reversed its original announcement and declared that Hafez had been killed by a bomb sent through the mail, but provided no other details. 25X1 3. On 14 July, Col. Salah Mustafa, the Egyptian military attache 25X1 in Jordan, was also critically injured by a mail-bomb.

4. Egypt, Jordan and Syria have attributed both explosions to Israeli military intelligence, recalling that "parcel post bombs" weremployed successfully in the past against the British by Israeli terrorist groups.  A. Whether or not Israel is responsible for the bombings, there will be pressure for retaliatory blows at Israel by Egypt and fordan.  5. Meanwhile a contest for control is shaping up between antileftist and leftist elements in Syria. It is also a contest between Iraq and Egypt. Civilian and military groups, inside and outside Syria, are engaged in plotting coups or countercoups. The situation remains highly fluid.	)
